

AHANE CLASSIC PROGRAM 2008 AND 2009

AHANE has decided to discontinue the Classic Program after the 2009 show due to the lack of participation in the program.

Therefore, there will be no new nominations accepted. However, those members who nominated their horses in 2006 and 2007 can re-nominate their horses because the initial fee covered the program for three years. The initial nomination fee was $125 per horse, per classic class and the yearly re-nomination fee is $25 for the second and third year. If you nominated your horse in 2006 you were able to re-nominate your horse in 2007 and may re-nominate in 2008. If you nominated your horse in 2007 you may re-nominate your horse in 2008 and 2009.

Classes may be chosen at time of re-nomination payment for each year, and selection may be changed from year to year to any of the selected classes in the program. Rider and/or owner may change, but not the nominated horse. The owner must be a member of AHANE. The same horse may be nominated for more than one class. A separate form must be filled out each year.

Yearly re-nomination fee of $25 is due by May 30, 2008.

Payout: Classic money will be paid to the first, second and third place Classic participants in the program. There will be three payouts per Classic class providing participants place in first through sixth place. (Review chart). A neck ribbon will be presented to all Classic participants first through sixth place.
